Mrs. Sara Delano Roosevelt (above), mother of President Roosevelt, died at her Hyde Park home Sunday afternoon at 12:30 at the age of 86. The President and his wife were at her bedside. She had recently returned from the Roosevelt summer home at Campobello, N. B.

FDR'S MOTHER
DIES AT HOME

President Delays Major Address Until Thursday Night

HYDE PARK, N. Y., Sept. 8.—The President's mother is dead, and a nation joined its chief executive in mourning today.

Mrs. Sara Delano Roosevelt, who twice saw her only son inaugurated as President of the United States, died yesterday at the rambling old house which has been the Roosevelt family home for three quarters of a century. She would have been 87 years old on Sept. 21.

Her death, attributed largely to her advanced years, resulted in the postponement from tonight until Thursday at 9 p. m. (EST) of a presidential radio address which the White House said would be of "major importance."

From the Franklin D. Roosevelt library, some 200 yards from the family home, the Stars and Stripes flew at half staff.

Many Messages of Sympathy

From lowly citizens and from many highly placed in the life of the nation, came messages of sympathy for the President. Telegraph offices were flooded, and special lines were set up to handle them.

From late Saturday night on, President Roosevelt and the first lady had kept a sorrowful watch by the bedside of his mother. They were with her when the end came shortly after noon yesterday.

So was the family physician, Dr. Scott L. Smith, who said the mother of the chief executive had had "an acute circulatory collapse, due principally to her advanced age."

She had been in a coma for 12 hours.

U. S. O. FUND DRIVE
IN SALEM NETS $385

If all cities and towns throughout the United States do as well as Salem did, the second general fund appeal of the United Service Organizations should be an outstanding success.

The Walken Bros. today announced that the campaign brought in $385.60 in the two theaters here last week, $310.93 at the State, and $74.67 at the Grand. All of this money will be turned over to the U. S. O.

Last week was devoted by all theaters in the United States toward the fund campaign. The money will be used in building recreational facilities for service men, near camps.

AT PARKING LOT

Loses $14 To Two Bandits: Other Robberies Reported To Police

A holdup and several thefts were reported to police during the week-end.

Charles Mathey of R. D. 4, Salem, lost $14 to two men who robbed him as he got out of his car at a parking lot near the corner of Sugar-tree alley and N. Broadway at 10 p. m. Saturday.

One man shoved a gun in his back while a second man went through his pockets. Mathey told Patrolman Clifford T. Gidd. After getting the money, the holdup pair fled across a back lot toward Second st.

The man with the gun was tall and slender and wore a pair of white trousers. Little description was obtained on the other thug.

Michael Havith of 489 Euclid st. told police that someone broke into the glove compartment of his automobile Saturday night and stole a .22 calibre revolver, a box of cartridges, a carton of cigarettes and a first aid kit.

F. C. Byers of Cherry st., Hillsdale, reported to police Saturday that a radio had been removed from his car while it was parked at his home within the past few days.

Lester Reinert of R. D. 1, Girard, reported to police Sunday the discovery of the theft of a bicycle from his garage on N. Madison ave.

The garage lock had been broken. Forest Stackhouse of R. D. 1, Beloit, told police that his bicycle was stolen on S. Broadway Sunday.

THREE OTHERS HURT
IN ROUTE 165 CRASH

Cincinnati Man, State Welfare Aid, Injured In Collision

Five traffic accidents in the district over the weekend brought injuries to at least 11 persons, according to state highway patrol and hospital reports.

Three persons were injured, one seriously, when an automobile driven by Mrs. Beady Presacco, 33, of R. D. 5, Salem, left the road on Route 45, two miles south of the Salem corporation limits, at 1:50 a. m. Sunday and overturned about five times.

Mrs. Presacco suffered a fractured skull, right ankle and cuts over her right eye. Her condition at City hospital is described as serious.

Riding with her at the time were Mrs. Mary Pedigrew, 44, and her husband, Charles, 48, also of R. D. 5, Salem, who are in City hospital. Mrs. Pedigrew suffered a possible fractured pelvis, an injury to her right hip and cuts and abrasions. Mr. Pedigrew suffered from shock and abrasions of both legs.

State highway patrolmen said the car, traveling south, failed to negotiate a curve and rolled over several times after hitting the edge of a small driveway abutment. The occupants, all unconscious, were removed from the wrecked car by passing motorists.

A two-car collision at the junction of Route 165 and the Stratton road, just west of the Goshen road, at 3:30 p. m. Saturday brought injuries to three persons, the patrol said.

Mrs. Mary Rohan, 50, of Zelienople, Pa., riding with Isaac Bedell, 72, of R. D. 1, Berlin Center, received contusions of the right leg and elbow, while Mrs. Steve Solomon, Jr., 22, of 661 Perry st., suffered contusions of the head and abrasions of the right arm and Joan Solomon, aged 2, received contusions about the left eye. They were given first aid treatment at City hospital.

Mr. Solomon, 31, who was driving the machine when it hit was hit by the other car, escaped uninjured as did the other driver, officers said.

Romeo Tobacco of Monessen, Pa., was fined $10 and costs when he pleaded guilty to a charge of reckless driving before Mayor George Wilson at Canfield as the aftermath of an accident at the junction of Routes 45 and 224 at Ellsworth at 4:45 p. m. Sunday.

The defendant's car hit another machine driven by Wallace Raubenstrow of Parma, bringing minor injuries to Mrs. Raubenstrow and two passengers in his own car. Mrs. Anna Dalozzo and Miss Mary

NAZIS ARE CHASED
FROM VOLGA REGION

(By Associated Press)

MOSCOW, Sept. 8.—The Soviet government, declaring the lower Volga had become a haven for Nazi spies and saboteurs, directed today that 300,000 persons of German extraction be uprooted from their homes in that area and resettled in various parts of Siberia.

Those affected by the mass migration order—descendants of German families whom Catherine the Great invited to settle along the Volga in 1762 as a barrier to Tartar invasion—will be given land and state aid to start life anew, the government said.

The migration was decreed, it was explained, as the result of an investigation by military authorities which disclosed "tens of thousands" of diversionists and spies among the German population of the Volga.

The government accused the population of "covering up enemies of the Soviet people" by failing to disclose the presence of these saboteurs who, it declared, were "prepared to cause explosions in these regions at a signal from Germany."

Two Die On Tracks

CLEVELAND, Sept. 8.—A Wheeling & Lake Erie switch engine killed William C. Cottrell, 35, who, locomotive crewmen said, sat on a spur track on suburban Brooklyn village despite their whistle warnings. Police said they believed that George J. Runt, 45, whose body was found beside Pennsylvania railroad tracks, was struck by a train in another mishap near East 87th street and Broadway.

SPECIAL ISSUES
FOR NOV. 4 LISTED

City Not Certain On Sewers Proposal; Considers Several Plans

At least 10 propositions providing for a wide range of public needs to be submitted at the Nov. 4 balloting in Columbiana county, the board of elections said today. Salem city council members, meanwhile, are undecided whether to resubmit the levy for sewer improvements, which lost by a scant margin at the primary election, or to issue bonds to complete the S. Broadway storm water sewer project.

Study Sewer Plans

"We're definitely going to have to do something," said A. P. Morris, chairman of council's sewers committee. "Right now we're considering several alternative steps."

Council has until 6:30 p. m. next Monday to file a petition with the election board to ask a new vote on the sewer levy.

Election board officials awaited an attorney general's ruling of submission of an initiative law, fixing a maximum interest rate on loans of $500 or less, which has been presented in the legislature.

The assembly is not in session, and Secretary of State John E. Sweeney has asked whether a direct vote should be ordered.

Charity Levy Tops List

A two-mill county charity levy tops proposals which have been granted ballot places.

Other questions or issues include a one-mill poor relief levy, a $35,000 road bond issue and a $50,000 high school gymnasium-auditorium bond issue in East Liverpool; a $36,000 school bond issue in Goshen district; a one and one-half mill school operating tax in Wellsville city; a one and one-half mill poor relief levy in East Palestine; a one-mill street lighting tax in New Waterford village, and three-mill school operating levies in Kensington and central rural districts.

Other Issues Are Cited

The board of elections Wednesday will determine the sufficiency of petitions, asking a vote on local option and the sale of beer in two precincts in eastern residential areas in East Liverpool.

Ballot officials have certified the names of 505 candidates for municipal, village township and school district ticket places.

Germans Round Up Jews, Two Frenchmen, After Attacks On Army

VICHY, Unoccupied France, Sept. 8.—More than 100 Jews and two prominent French lawyers, one of them a minister of justice in the old republic, were reported today to have been seized as hostages by German occupation authorities in Paris because of attacks on members of the German army.

It was in these new mass arrests that the Germans took the two once-prominent lawyers, former Justice Minister Pierre Masse, who is a Jew, and Theodore Valensi, a former deputy, who is a native of Corsica.

Vichy no longer tried to hide the gravity of the strife in the occupied zone or the fact that reprisals are only making things worse. "We can expect to see street incidents multiply," the official government news agency told its papers.

The agency reproduced an extract from the Paris "Cri Du Peuple," comparing the situation in Paris with open warfare.

Authorized Vichy sources charged that the outbreaks, particularly shootings in Paris, were part of a Communist plot aimed at forcing Germany to withdraw troops from the eastern front.

DEFENSE INDUSTRY
TO ASK 31,000 MEN

COLUMBUS, Sept. 8.—Ohio's labor statisticians estimated today 31,000 workers would be needed during the last four months of 1941 by the state's defense-busy industries.

Nineteen thousand skilled employees and 12,000 general laborers will be required, the bureau of unemployment compensation commission reported. The BUC now has 14,874 workers registered for skilled occupations, but it anticipates a shortage in machinist, tool and die maker, sheet metal worker and aircraft worker occupations.

Of the 12,000 other workers needed, the BUC hopes to divert 2,000 men and women who are expected to be laid off during the last four months by employers with non-defense contracts who will be forced to curtail operations due to lack of materials. Precise data as to the extent of lay-offs still is not available, the BUC said.

Cleveland's 365 key defense employers led the state in anticipated increased employment, indicating they would need 7,772 workers. Cincinnati's needs were estimated at 7,162; Ravenna's 5,100; Akron's 3,720; Columbus' 1,501; Canton's 1,215; Springfield's 918; Marion's 719; Lima's 616; and Hamilton's 550.

The automobile club office is open daily from 8:30 a. m. until 5:30 p. m.

Motorists need not be residents of this county to get their permits here. A law change grants persons the privilege of buying their licenses anywhere.

OHIO EDISON WILL BOOST PRODUCTION

In order to keep well ahead of the constantly mounting demands for electric power occasioned by the national defense program, Ohio Edison company will construct another 40,000 kilowatt addition, to cost approximately $3,600,000, to its Toronto power station on the Ohio river, President A. C. Blinn announced today. The new power development is scheduled for completion in the fall of 1943.

An order for a new steam turbine and generator has already been placed with the Westinghouse Electric & Manufacturing company of Pittsburgh, Blinn said. The equipment will constitute the sixth generating unit to go into the Toronto plant and will increase the amount of power that the station is capable of producing from 180,000 to 220,000 kilowatts.

Design work on the contemplated extension to the present power house structure is already under way and actual construction will commence next spring.

Cited To Appear

Mrs. Steve Cosgarea, as permit holder of the Tourist hotel, 209 W. State st., was ordered today to appear before the state liquor control board at Columbus to answer to charges of liquor law violations.

She is one of several Ohio permit holders ordered to appear between Sept. 10 and 12. Also in the group is James V. Borelli of R. D. 2, East Palestine.

State agents visited the Cosgarea place Aug. 24 when a raid was staged at "Ted's Place," S. Broadway.

German Front-Line Dispatches Concede Bitter Fighting

(By Associated Press)
Adolf Hitler's high command reported late today that German troops had cut off Leningrad from all land connections and captured the railroad center of Schlussemburg, only 25 miles east of the old Czarist capital.

Schlussemburg lies across the Neva river from Leningrad.

Pierce Battle Rages

The Russians admitted that a fierce battle was raging outside Leningrad, with the Germans smashing in major offensives at the west and south approaches of the city.

Leningrad itself has been under German shell-fire since last Friday, the Nazis said.

Soviet military dispatches said the Nazi invaders so far had failed to score a serious break-through, and a Leningrad broadcast, pledging defense of the "cradle of the blessed (Bolshevik) revolution" to the death, voiced optimism that the city would hold out.

"We have erected a steel wall around Leningrad," the radio said. German front-line dispatches conceded that the Russian troops were making a bitter village-to-village stand.

Reds Take Initiative

Elsewhere on the muddy, rain-soaked front, Moscow reported that the Red armies were pressing the initiative on a broad sector around Gomel, taking a bloody toll of German casualties, while Soviet guerrillas roved far behind the line stabbing at Nazi columns.

The German news agency said Russia's air force, battered by hundreds of Stuka dive-bombers blasting at Leningrad's defenses, lost 71 planes yesterday.

Rumanians To Meet
In Detroit In 1943

Detroit was selected as the site for the 1943 biennial national convention of the Union and League of Rumanian Societies at the closing session of the week-long convulse here Saturday.

Other cities which made strong bids for the next convention were Akron, Youngstown, Erie, Pa., and Gary, Ind.

Before adjourning the delegates extended a vote of appreciation to the Salem Rumanian society led and to the people of the city in general for the hospitality extended them.

Business sessions Friday and Saturday were featured by reports of the officers and delegates, including a report on the newspaper which is published by the league.

Nicholas Balandu of Cleveland was re-elected president of the national organization at a meeting Thursday. He has been head of the group for six years.

A Rumanian day picnic, sponsored by the newspaper, "America News," will be held in Canton July 4, it was decided Saturday.

SMITH IS RENAMED TO CIVIL SERVICE

COLUMBUS, Sept. 8.—Carl W. Smith of Kenton today was reappointed by Gov. John W. Bricker to a second term on the state civil service commission.

Smith, who travels farther to work each day than any other state official—he commutes from Kenton—got his start in state service as secretary to former Gov. George White.

Before White left office, he named Smith to the state parole board secretaryship. Then ormer Gov. Martin L. Davey appointed Smith to the civil service commission.

A Democrat, Smith continued to serve with Chairman Gertrude Jones of Findlay on the two-member commission. His salary is $4,000 yearly.

Smith's reappointment was anticipated since he remained on good terms with the Bricker administration during its drastic reorganization of state departments two years ago.

Smith got his start in politics as Kenton postmaster, holding that position eight years. Later he managed the old Marion Tribune.

100 PERCENT DEFENSIVE

Apparently it is going to be sufficient for present purposes to write off the Greer "incident" as 100 percent defensive, thereby absolving both sides of responsibility.

A destroyer on the high seas is justified in dropping depth charges when there is possibility of submarine attack. If the U. S. S. Greer's commander played safe, he cannot be condemned. The sound of a submarine running submerged, like the sound of a prowler in the home at night, is circumstantial evidence of danger. The commander must save his ship.

A submarine, on the other hand, has its own defense problems. Its commander has just as many obligations as the commander of a destroyer—and all of them amount to one thing. He is supposed to save his ship. If it is being endangered, he is supposed to protect it, even though the danger may be unpremeditated.

What it amounts to is that a destroyer may have dropped depth charges to protect itself against a submarine, and a submarine may have fired torpedoes to protect itself against a destroyer. It doesn't make real good sense, but if the time comes for an "incident" that will do what the Greer "incident" might have done, there will be no missed shots, no explanations, no loose ends of uncertainty.

COURTESY CAN'T BE LEGISLATED

Ohio's attempt to iron out confusing differences in traffic regulation with its first uniform state code will make driving easier for drivers who try to stay within the law. Safeguards like the statewide 50-mile speed limit, except where a higher or lower speed is permissible when notice is posted, possibly will make driving safer, depending on enforcement.

Unfortunately, uniform observance of the new law can't be legislated any more than uniform courtesy can be legislated. As more and more thought is given to traffic problems, it becomes plainer that back of the problems is a state of mind in which consideration for others somehow has been neglected.

For instance, in the uniform state code it is specified that traffic within intersections always has the right of way over traffic approaching intersections. There can be no possible argument about the logic of this provision, yet one of the commonest and most annoying experiences in traffic is to be the poor sucker who gets caught in the middle without benefit of enough courtesy from other drivers to let him complete his way out of an intersection.

Perhaps the most direct remedy every tried on traffic ills is the courtesy drive, because if drivers had courtesy all minor problems would take care of themselves.

SHADOW OF A COMING EVENT

The U. S. S. Greer "incident's" net effect is to remind Americans once more that freedom of the seas is their country's basic foreign policy. It was not suspended, but merely blurred, by the neutrality act, which was designed to minimize the provocation of war implicit in the policy.

The neutrality act can be repealed when, as and if congress feels that there is more to be gained than lost thereby. The New York Times reported last Friday that a high administration source had indicated this would take place within the next few months, depending on the rate of ship losses in the battle of the Atlantic.

It would be hastened, undoubtedly, by further evidence of the same nature as that in the Greer "incident" that freedom of the seas is not going to be any easier to maintain in its amended form under the neutrality act than it was in its previous form. The instant that United States vessels operating outside of combat zones are endangered by Germany, there will be no further reason for continuing to think of the neutrality act as protection from the provocations of war.

A further consideration is that more ships will be needed to transport war material abroad under the lend-lease act than are available now when United States production begins to soar this winter. This government's entire purpose in pledging aid to the Allies would be defeated if the aid were blocked by lack of transportation.

LOW-GRADE ORE

In the course of time, a bill to soak the daylight out of taxpayers having been passed by both houses, the thing will be compromised, signed and the fun will commence.

It will not be, of course, funny, because what is going to be done—in a half-hearted way, unfortunately—is to try to keep federal revenue from falling so far behind expenses they never will be able to catch up. They have been falling back steadily for 10 years, and since lend-lease and war booming started, they have lost sight of the budget entirely. A rough idea of what has happened is the fact that whereas the tax bill, biggest in history, calls for taking away at least 3 1/2 billion dollars from taxpayers, federal expenditures will be put on the cuff for six times that amount in the 12 months after next July 1.

But the clearest idea of what has happened is this: The new bill probably is going to add close to 5,000,000 taxpayers to the income tax list. That means 5,000,000 citizens will have to stew and fret over the most bothersome tax to pay that has been invented yet. It's what someone had in mind when the expression "paying through the nose" was invented.

And what will the government get out of putting 5,000,000 new taxpayers to all this inconvenience? Only $300,000,000, which is chicken feed today, though by a coincidence it is about $30,000,000 less than the total receipts of the federal government in 1905, the year government spending began to soar. It never has come down since, but it won't stay aloft long on the income tax payments that can be wrung out of the little operators now being readied for the government's big mailing list. They're low grade ore in Washington's search for gold, and prospectors wouldn't be interested in them if the nuggets and bonanzas hadn't been used up long ago.

THE STARS SAY:

For Tuesday, September 9

A day of intensity and high tempo, with all the forces and faculties subject to pressure and strain, according to interesting lunar and mutual aspects of major planets. Under the urge of such fiery and forceful vibrations there is danger of running riot or pushing matters to extremes, through over-zeal, enthusiasm and audacity, when a more temperate and restrained program would prove more productive. New projects may be successfully launched with proper planning and direction, especially where the public interest is at issue. Impetuosity and excesses are hazardous to intimate relations as well as business.

If It Is Your Birthday

Those whose birthday it is may anticipate a year of excellent progress, with growth in large enterprises and new projects, if they will apply their splendid energy, inventive and creative faculties with moderation and restraint rather than excessive zeal. High-pressure methods, well directed and planned, should win outstanding success, with some sort of public support. Apply bold strokes to large propositions, but avoid recklessness and headstrong indulgence.

A child born on this day may have a forceful and vigorous nature, with great energy and initiative for big things in life. But these might be defeated by going to extremes.

There is a growing fear America is going to be held holding the bag, that is if there's any left to hold.

At last we think we have solved the mystery. The man known as Joe Stalin is a symbol, like our Uncle Sam.

Destruction of an Italian Bomber

HOW NEW DRUGS ARE DEVELOPED

Methods Of Curing Human Ills Described

By LOGAN CLENDENING, M. D.

On my recent trip to South America, I was attracted by a fellow-passenger on the steamer, a Polish chemist, Professor Borzykowski, who had left his country because he was not in political agreement with the ideas of Hitler and had been invited by the Peruvian government to investigate certain chemical resources in that country. I saw him several times in Lima after he had started work. I was, therefore, highly pleased to read that Professor Borzykowski had reported to a special committee of experts on South American industrial development that he had found three new pain-controlling plants which had never been used before by anyone except Peruvian natives.

Dr. Clendening will answer questions of general interest only, and then only through his column.

One of these is known as the "ayahuasca" plant. These various plants are said to be quite as powerful in controlling pain as opium and morphine. This, if true, is of great value because the sources of morphine are controlled by Japan in the Orient and by Germany in the Balkans. American supplies are gradually diminishing.

Obtaining New Drugs

The research illustrates one of the methods of obtaining new drugs. Many of our most valuable drugs, such as foxglove and strychnine, have been developed in just this way.

A physician finds that the people of a certain district of a foreign country are using a certain plant for medicinal purposes and he is induced to make a trial of it and finds that it actually has valuable properties which cannot be duplicated by any drug known to civilized medical practitioners.

Another way of developing drugs is by the use of synthetic chemistry. An example of this is the production of our hypnotic drugs. One of the first of these was developed by Liebig when he bubbled chlorine gas into alcohol and obtained a new liquid which he called "chloal".

For many years, chloral was about the best hypnotic drug. But it had dangerous potentialities. Chloral is the kick in the famous "knock-out drops" need to shanghai sailors. Besides being very powerful to the point of being dangerous, it was habit-forming.

Phenyl-hydrazine

The development of modern hypnotics was the work of Emil Fischer, at the University of Wurzburg. Fischer was one of the greatest organic chemists who ever lived. He did a great deal of work on the chemistry of the sugars and in doing so used a chemical known as phenyl-hydrazine. In the course of his work, he inhaled a good deal of phenyl-hydrazine; after a good dose, he went to sleep.

Fischer with the suggestion of another physician, Josef von Mering, decided that a safer hypnotic could be made. Finally he produced eighteen, all of which produced some degree of hypnosis.

Some were too strong and produced a sleep from which the dogs to which it was given never woke, but the best of the lot produced twenty-four hours of placid sleep in this one they named "veronal" in memory of the Italian city of Verona which von Mering thought the most restful place in the world.

Others in the same group were luminal and phenobarbital. One of the tragedies of scientific history was that Emil Fischer, himself, in 1919, when he was finally convinced that the German army was not invincible, died with his last unhappy moment softened by the use of veronal.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

F. B.—How reliable are the berculosis skin tests? How often should they be given? Will a child who has frequent attacks of bronchial asthma be more likely to develop tuberculosis? Is there any truth in the saying that people with asthma rarely have tuberculosis?

Answer—The tuberculosis skin test which is positive in a person under the age of ten years has a great deal of significance. Over that age, it must be carefully interpreted. Therefore, it should be done at about the age of ten. It is a rule that people with bronchial asthma do not have tuberculosis. Sometimes this rule is broken. However, a child with bronchial asthma is certainly not likely to have tuberculosis.

OUR READERS

MORE ON TRAFFIC

Editor, The News:

In a recent issue of The Salem News I was very much amused by an article stating that the mayor of Salem had requested a state traffic expert to come to Salem to see if the traffic could be diverted from the main street during the Apple Festival early in October.

In my opinion it would not take an expert to find a better and quicker way through Salem than through the main street. One way traffic on any street or alley would be much better. I have motored over most of the United States and a large part of Canada and have never seen a worse traffic bottleneck than Salem's main street, very narrow with cars parked on both sides and a traffic light at every street intersection.

A week ago Saturday I returned from a trip of more than 2500 miles. Arriving in Salem at 11:30 a. m. I encountered by far the worst traffic jam of the whole trip and I went through many cities much larger than Salem. From west of Filadelfia to Lincoln ave. there was a solid line of cars going in each direction and stopping from two to three times to get past each light. Later in the day I was on the main street several times and the same tied-up traffic as in the morning.

As a favor to the motoring public and to speed up traffic on Routes 14 and 62 I would suggest that this diversion be made permanent and eliminate one of the worst traffic bottlenecks in the United States.

Miss Miller, Ensign Goldner Are Married In Church Here

Miss Marye Lou Miller, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Miller, S. Lincoln ave., became the bride of Ensign Charles Goldner, of Warren, in a beautiful, softly lighted wedding ceremony Saturday evening at the Methodist church. Rev. Carl Asmus of Salem and Rev. Sidney A. Mayer of Cuyahoga Falls, formerly of Salem, heard the exchange of vows.

The bride and groom were united in marriage before an arch of plumosa and white gladioli. The arch was flanked by two seven-branch candelabra, set amid cybotium, maiden hair, Boston ferns, and young palms.

The bride carrying a bouquet of calliea orchids, gardenias, stephanotis and maiden hair fern, wore a wedding gown of blue satin with sweetheart neck and pointed sleeves over the hand. The gown had a pleated puff at the shoulders, a tight fitted bodice and a full gathered skirt with two and a half yard train. Her veil, falling from a sweetheart shaped brim, was made with two shoulder capes and a face veil. For traveling Mrs. Goldner chose a navy wool suit with red and white accessories. She wore an orchid corsage and carried twin silver fox furs.

Bridesmaids wore dresses of coral velvet with tight fitted bodices and sweetheart necks. The dresses had full taffeta skirts with pouch pockets. Bridesmaids carried bouquets of Picardy gladioli, yellow roses and maiden hair fern, with matching flowers in their hair.

Junior bridesmaids wore dresses of peacock blue velvet with full taffeta skirt, done in a scallop motif. The matron of honor looked lovely in a gown similar to the bridesmaids, but finished in a raisin shade.

P. L. Whitney of Cleveland, a fraternity brother and former college roommate, served the groom as best man. Mrs. Whitney was the matron of honor. Anne Winder of Salem was the junior bridesmaid.

Bridesmaids were Misses Lucia Sharp, Nannabel Beardmore, and Florence Hiltbrand of Salem; and Miss Austa Goldner of Warren, a sister of the groom.

Ushers were Benson R. Miller of Salem, a brother of the bride; and George and William Goldner of Warren, brothers of the groom.

Recital Precedes Ceremony

A half hour recital by Homer Taylor preceded the ceremony, the music including "Canticle Nuptial" (Dubois); "Evensong" (Johnston); "Toccata" (de Mearaux); "Ave Maria" (Schubert); "At Dusk" (Cadman); "Serenade" (Drigo); "I Love You Truly" (Jacobs-Bond) and "Liebstraume" (Liszt).

The Wagner and Mendelssohn music was played for the processional and the recessional, and during the ceremony, "O Perfect Love" (Barnby).

Organ music also provided a lovely background for the reception held following the wedding, the reception taking place in the Sunday school room, beautifully decorated.

Adjoining the church auditorium, a twin centerpiece separated by a three-branch candelabra, decorated the bride's table. Asters were on the other tables.

After the reception, the couple left for Texas, where they will make their home.

The bride, employed as a teacher in Salem High school prior to her marriage, was graduated here in the class of 1932. She was graduated from Ohio Wesleyan university in the class of 1936 and received an M. A. from that institution in 1938.

FAIR CROWDS SET FOR ANNUAL FETE

Lower reveal this county is eighth in dairying in the state, and has the largest number of registered Jersey cattle, many of which have been entered in the livestock show. Dairying also constitutes 45% of the gross agricultural income in the county, it is said.

The poultry show will have some of the finest fowls, which will give the visitors to that department an insight into a branch of farm life ranking second in income, or 15% in this county.

While this county rates third in the state in acreage in potato raising and second in yield, exhibits of home grown spuds will doubtless rank well with those grown in any state. Incidentally, the raising of potatoes provides 10% of the gross income of county farmers.

Although Columbiana county ranks first in the state in the growing of apples, and trees in county orchards are literally bending down with fruit, the exhibit will not be complete in this department because the major part of the crop has not been harvested. The county in former years ranked second in its peach orchards, but this year is harvesting possibly the largest crop of this luscious fruit for a long time.

Fruit Helps Income

Fruit raising contributes nine percent of the gross income of county farmers, with wheat and nursery farms amounting to five per cent, and all other sources totalling 11 per cent of the agricultural income.

The Columbiana County Agricultural society, sponsors of the annual fair, is headed this year by W. B. Stratton, Salem, as president. Other officers are: L. R. Cobb, Salem, vice pres.; J. H. Sinclair, Hanoverton, secretary; I. C. Bean, Lisbon, treasurer.

Members of the fair board who have charge of various department entries and exhibits, are: W. B. Stratton, educational and club work; J. C. Gaston, St. Clair twp., farm products, culinary, art and needlework; Van J. Morris, Elkrun twp., cattle; L. R. Cobb, Lisbon twp., show horses; G. A. Rogers, Lisbon, speed horses; C. W. Helm, West twp., sheep and swine; G. A. Quay, East Palestine, poultry; and L. H. Copeland, Millport, fruits, vegetables, seeds and grains.

Grand Coulee Dam will be the earth's greatest single source of electricity.

AUTO QUALITY NOT IMPAIRED FOR 1942

In Fact, Cars Will Be Better Than Ever, Says De-Soto Manager

The curtailment of passenger automobile production, announced for the 1942 model year, will not in the least affect motor car quality, in the opinion of C. E. Bleicher, vice president and general manager of the De Soto division of Chrysler corporation.

As a matter of fact, cars will be better than ever this year, he said, pointing out that more stamina than ever before has been engineered into the new models.

"The reduction in passenger car output, dictated by requirements of the national defense program, doesn't mean a thing as far as automobile quality is concerned," Bleicher declared. "Take our new De Soto, for instance. We started planning this car two years ago, long before it was decreed that a national emergency existed. Then, ever since it began to look as though there would be a cut in production, we've striven for even greater perfection of product."

"The public can rest assured that the cars available in 1942 have been engineered for maximum long life and satisfaction. Engineering emphasis has been placed, also, on such important considerations as greater operating economy and increased safety."

The new De Sotos will be displayed by the company's dealers at announcement meetings which will be held in 33 key cities across the United States between Sept. 8 and 17, he announced. And soon thereafter, the cars will make their appearance in salesrooms and on the streets.

Time To Prepare Clothes For Fall

If getting ready for fall and winter in your home entails a refurbishing of the family wardrobe, then this item can be dispensed with quickly and cheerfully, and attention turned to other matters.

This, in fact, is a minute job, because of the facilities offered by the Paris Cleaners. The Paris does the worrying, although, with all the modern equipment that has been installed by the enterprising Salem plant, it is not really a worry to the cleaners.

Precision instruments and machinery of the latest design have been added at the Paris plant and the entire floor space has been practically doubled during the summer.

All that's necessary to place the great facilities of this plant at your disposal is a telephone call. No matter what the type of garment or home furnishing article, you can dismiss the subject from your mind once the job is on its way to the Paris plant.

It's a good time now to go over the winter clothing at your home to see what's needed in the way of cleaning and repair.

Industry One of Farmer's Best Customers, Says Ford Company

DETROIT—The automobile industry is one of the farmer's best customers, according to a report based on the extensive use of farm products by the Ford Motor company in building cars and trucks.

It is estimated that for each 1,000,000 units it manufactures, Ford needs from the American farmer the following agricultural items:

Cotton—49,350,000 pounds or the annual output of 433,125 acres.

Wool—3,204,000 pounds or the wool from approximately 801,000 sheep.

Wood—112,000,000 board feet or 20,500 acres of forestlands.

Cattle—20,000 head to provide 1,500,000 square feet of leather.

Soybeans—600,000 bushels.

Flax—118,000 bushels, equivalent to 17,500 acres.

Tung oil—195,000 gallons.

Hogs—20,000 head, to provide 1,000,000 pounds of lard oil lubricant.

Corn—451,500 bushels, equivalent to 11,280 acres.

Wheat—120,000 pounds as flour used in foundry.

Goats—87,500 head, to provide 350,000 pounds of mohair material.

Jute—5,000,000 pounds.

Pine pitch—2,000,000 pounds.

Sugar Cane—Enough to provide 2,500,000 gallons of molasses.

Honey bees—83,000,000 bees, to produce 6,000 pounds of beeswax.

Castor oil—150,000 gallons.

Most of the cotton brought to the Ford Rouge plant is used in the form of upholstery cloth and in tire fabric. Wool is used in upholstery and for certain gaskets. The cow plays its part by providing leather upholstery, gasket material and glycerine.

Soybeans have many uses in the Ford industries, due to the pioneering efforts of Henry Ford in trying to find more and better uses for farm products in his plants. Chief among them are in the body finishes, moulded electrical parts and as core oil and bond in the foundry. Lard is utilized in paints, core oils, soft soaps and glycerine. Two chief uses for tung oil are in enamels and varnishes and in brake linings.

The hog contributes lard oil for rear axle lubricant and also provides bristles for brushes. Jute goes into carpet backing, and pine pitch is used for foundry resin, turpentine, adhesives, paints and lacquers.

Sugar cane provides alcohol for anti-freeze, shock absorber fluid and various solvents. Castor oil is used for lacquer and artificial leather and hydraulic brake fluid. Beeswax is utilized as electrical insulating compound.

Missouri automobile traffic increased 16 per cent in the first half of 1941.

Good Plumbing Aids In Defense Program

Hot water corrodes metal more rapidly than cold water and it has been found that the rate of corrosion more than doubles with each 40 degrees rise in temperature.

This means that the rate of corrosion in a hot water heating tank and system will be doubled if operated at 180 degrees, instead of the recommended 140 degrees, according to J. R. Stratton, local plumber.

In view of the importance of conserving metals for national defense, Stratton advises homeowners to have the operating temperatures of their water heating systems checked by experienced master plumbers.

The use of proper thermostatic controls to prevent excessive temperatures is recommended by Stratton for all hot water heating plants, both direct and indirect type.

CHECK AUTO FUEL TO PREVENT WASTE

Many Motorists Benefiting By Gasoline Economy Program

"Whatever the ultimate effect of regulated gasoline consumption, there is no doubt that the immediate effect has been beneficial to many automobile owners," says Don Smith of Smith garage, local Chrysler dealer.

"Owners generally, and particularly in the eastern section of the country where restrictions already have been put in force, are learning that they have been wasting a very considerable amount of fuel through careless driving habits or improperly adjusted engines, or both."

"Since it became evident that we must conserve gasoline and oil, thousands of motorists have been visiting garages to have their cars checked up with a view to increased economy. Results have been both surprising and gratifying. They have found that by having a few adjustments made they can increase their gasoline mileage very greatly. In general, none of these adjustments is either hard to make or expensive. It is simply a matter of getting the engine in tune so that it will function with maximum efficiency."

"The better garages are now equipped with motor analyzers and other mechanical devices by means of which they can be absolutely certain that everything about the engine is as nearly perfect as it can be made. All the guesswork is eliminated. But even garages that lack some of the more modern equipment can do a good tune-up job that will save gasoline and improve performance."

"Let me advise every owner to have his engine checked at once. No matter how well satisfied he is with its economy and performance, it is likely that improvements may be effected by some simple adjustment. The cost of this check-up and whatever adjustments are indicated is small. The resulting saving in gasoline will soon pay for it. This is not, however, entirely a matter of saving money. It is a patriotic duty to make fuel and oil go as far as possible."

Iron Fireman Provides For Both Automatic Stoking And Better Heating

The present financing trend is making it easier than ever for home owners to modernize their heating equipment, says Wm. W. Tolerton of the Citizens Ice and Coal company, Iron Fireman distributors for this district.

For instance, Iron Fireman says, the new plan will enable the homeowner to install an automatic coal stoker now and enjoy its benefits on chilly days without paying a cent until October.

Despite quick installation of coal stokers in cold weather, summer is the best time to modernize heating equipment. Then the whole heating system can be thoroughly checked over and repairs made if they are needed.

In most cases, however, an automatic stoker can be installed without great changes in the existing system. The grates in the furnace will be removed, and the retort and deadplates bricked-in in their place.

Aside from the benefits of automatic firing, a modern coal stoker will improve the quality of heating, prevent smoke nuisance and, in most cases, cut fuel costs.

Dodgers, Playing Yankee, Sweep To Three-Game National Lead

"DEM BUMS" PLAY IN JUST ONE MORE 'CROOSHAL' SERIES

Meet Cardinals For Three Games At Week's End; Cards Must Win All

(By Associated Press)
Around and about in the National league today, the boys and girls were wondering if maybe the Brooklyn Dodgers weren't suffering from hallucinations.

"Who," they were asking, "do those Brooklyn think they are—the Yankees?"

What was once a sizzling pennant race has now become actually about as close as Bill Terry and the baseball writers.

"Dem bums" are bouncing along on a three-game lead, and they'll hold it all day today, for the whole outfit, National and American leagues both, take a holiday. Tomorrow, the Brooklyn head west, make a brief stop in Chicago, and then hold their absolute last "crooshal" series with the second-place Cardinals Thursday, Friday and Saturday in St. Louis.

And if the Dodgers reach St. Lou with their three-game edge still in one piece, or a reasonable facsimile thereof, the hustle guys from the Mississippi must sweep the three-game set to even keep hoping they'll hit the jackpot.

Cincinnati grabbed Saturday's split contest with the Cards and split yesterday's twin bill by picking up a 5-2 decision in the nightcap after the Gas Housers won the opener, 1-7.

While this was going on the Dodgers were sweeping a three-game set with the Giants, climaxing the job with yesterday's impressive doubleheader win.

Brooks Rear Up

In the opener, the Brooks just up and knocked the ears off their ancient enemies, 13-1, with Kirby Higbie tossing a six-hitter to become the National League's first 20-game pitching winner of the year.

The nightcap, however, was a horse from a different garage. The Terry Terriers whacked Whitely Wyatt for three runs in the seventh inning to take the lead. However, in the ninth, Ducky Medwick's single sent two tallies home to tie, and in the tenth Pete Reiser poked out a hit to push a run across for a 4-3 Brooklyn win.

The Yankees, who already have their American league championship stored away, slipped the second-place Boston Red Sox, 8-5, yesterday to stretch their league lead to 20½ games.

The St. Louis Browns exercised their jinx on the third-place Chicago White Sox again for a 3-1 win behind Denny Galehouse, and Tommy Bridges celebrated "Bridges Day" at Briggs Stadium by treating himself to a six-hit elbowing job for a 4-1 Detroit victory over Cleveland. Washington trounced the Athletics twice, 3-2 and 4-2.

Valleu Bayes, served up a five-hitter and pitched the Chicago Cubs to a 3-1 triumph over the Pittsburgh Pirates and Casey Stengel's Boston Braves, the supposed hitless wonders, stroked 35 hits to pretty nearly all sections of Boston to pound the pathetic Phillies twice, 17-6, and 10-1.

INDIANS OPEN LAST EASTERN JOURNEY

Tackle Philadelphia Tuesday; Lose Three Out Of Four To Detroit

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 8.—The Cleveland Indians, who open their last eastern tour here tomorrow, are so close to the edge of fourth place there's no comfort in it.

The Tigers made it three in a row out of four at Detroit yesterday, with a 4-1 victory, and climbed to within a half game of the Indians.

It was "Tommy Bridges day" in Briggs stadium and Tommy lived up to the occasion by carefully pitching six-hit ball while Bruce Campbell was driving in all the Bengals' runs. Chubby Dean limited the Tigers to the same number of hits, but he was wild and issued too many passes.

In the third inning Dean walked Barney McCosky, Rudy York and Pinky Higgins to fill the bases, and when Campbell doubled all three scored.

In the sixth Higgins doubled, and Campbell singled him home. Idle today, the Indians engage the Athletics Tuesday and Wednesday, then move into Washington for four games.

There were 127 birds, from 12 lofts competing and they made good time. Flying in a N. W. shouldered wind, they were liberated at 6:30 and Odeus, 4th was clocked at 8:52, for a speed of 1150 yards a minute or 40 miles an hour.

The next race is from Columbus, the 135 mile station. Birds will be countermarked, and shipped Saturday evening, for Sunday liberation.

Breezy Briefs Of Sport From Brietz To You

By HUGH S. FULLERTON, JR.
NEW YORK, Sept. 8.—Week's wash: Leo Durocher stuck himself into the Dodge's lineup Saturday and hinted that he'd play out the season if his legs held up. He took himself out again in yesterday's first game after going three for ought while everybody else was hitting. In a prominent spot on the bulletin board in the Yanks' clubhouse is a congratulatory wire from Babe Dahlgren, who was one of the "bums" who couldn't win last year. Latest reports are that John Kimbrough may play with the Philadelphia Eagles this season if the club's negotiations with Douglas Hertz go through.

Quote, Unquote

Joe Cronin: "It's a lazy man's job, that third base. All you do is stand there and wait for the drives. You can let 'em bounce off you anywhere and anytime and still have time to throw out the guy at first."

Now who wants to bet Joe will be a bench manager next season?

Cleaning the Cuff

Army's football scouts report that Joe Muma of V. M. I. is a lot better player than his brother, who did right well with Carnegie Tech, and they're afraid he may wreck the Cadets in the second game of the season. Hot tip (maybe): Phil Rizzuto played with a pennant winner every one of his four years in the Yankees' farm system but his club was always linked in the playoffs. Well, the Yanks won the pennant his first year up. The draft and the schedules aren't the only things bothering football coaches these days. Several eastern Pennsylvania colleges have had to cancel early-season games because of infantile paralysis in that region.

Today's Guest Star

Nixon Denton, Cincinnati Times-Star: "Middle western football writers are to form an organization. Their principal objective is to protect themselves from college press agents."

"Straight Football Comes First," Says New Coach

"Straight football comes first," said Salem High's new grid coach, Ray Overturf, today. Fearing that Salem fans would expect a razzle-dazzle wide-open game because of the light, fast squad that is out this year, the former Geneva member cautioned against over optimism. "We're not going to try any fancy kind of play until we master the fundamentals," he said. Praising the spirit of the 1941 team he expressed doubt that there was time to master completely the intricate details of double wing back play.

"We'll use the double wing occasionally but we'll build it on top of a solid ground gaining crew. It doesn't do any good to throw the ball all over the field if you haven't got the drive to get it over when it gets near the goal," he stated.

Right now the new coach's main trouble is finding a versatile full-back and a good passer. Johnny Volio, reserve veteran, looms as one of the best pigskin tossers in sight with Phil Cozad and Ralph Davis as distinct possibilities. Davis, with a little more experience, will give Phil Cozad a run for the left halfback position.

Bob Scullion, a late starter, is tentatively booked at full with "Toots" Hrvatin as alternate. Dick Cuberson will probably be signal-calling quarterback. Volio is scheduled to vie with Carmen Nocera for the right halfback slot.

The gridgers are now participating a workout each afternoon at

KENNEWEG STUDIO TO OPEN THURSDAY

The Bettie Lee Kenneweg dance studio will reopen Thursday for the fall and winter term, Mrs. Renee Kenneweg, manager, announced today.

Bettie Lee Kenneweg Schilling and her mother recently returned from New York City where Bettie Lee studied for several weeks the latest dance routines of the season, including LaCongo taps, rumbas, ballet, and ballet interpretation, Spanish, and the new modern work. In ballroom dancing Bettie Lee learned the LaCongo and the rum-bas as they are done in their native country, Cuba, by Cuban teachers. Mrs. Kenneweg, as manager of her daughter's studio, announces the tenth anniversary of the school, and specials will be given from time to time.

The studio will open next Thursday with enrollments at 2:30 for classes and private lessons every Thursday at the Memorial building.

FDR'S MOTHER DIES AT FAMILY'S HOME

President Delays Major Address Until Thursday Night

The funeral, limited to relatives and to old neighbors and friends, will be held at the family residence tomorrow.

Mrs. Roosevelt will be buried in the family plot in the churchyard of picturesque St. James Episcopal church, where under a canopy of aged oaks and elms, is buried the President's father.

The chief executive was only 18 when his father, James Roosevelt, died in 1900, and he and his mother have been exceptionally close. Her home has been his home all his life.

Never Approved Politics Proudly she had seen her son inaugurated as the only three-term President of the United States. Yet she had never quite approved of politics as a career for him. To her, he was more "my boy, Franklin," than "the President."

The matriarch of Hyde Park house was supposed to have been one individual who subdued the vociferous Huey Long, the late senator and "Kingfish," from Louisiana, at a dinner party.

Other guests said he had monopolized the conversation, expounding his ideas of government and passing along advice to the President, until Mrs. Roosevelt turned to a neighbor and said in a stage whisper:

"There was only one reason why I didn't want Franklin to go into politics. He has to deal with such peculiar people."

She had taken in stride such historic events as the visit in June, 1939, of King George and Queen Elizabeth of England. And she was not hesitant to interrupt her son, even when he was conferring with a distinguished personage in his cluttered study, if she wanted to know what he desired for lunch.

But then, Sara Delano had some royal blood, as a descendant of the Prince of Scyri of France and of the Delanos, who originally spelled the name De Lannoy.

Educated Abroad Mrs. Roosevelt was educated by governesses at her girlhood home in Newburgh, N. Y., and in France and Germany. In 1880, when she was 26, she was married to James Roosevelt, a lawyer with rail and financial interests, who was exactly twice her age. Six years later he bought Hyde Park house, high above the Hudson, whose original portion was begun in 1748.

There in her second-floor bedroom, overlooking the Albany Post road and a segment of a 1,200 acre estate, Mrs. Roosevelt died.

For a person of her age, Mrs. Roosevelt had been in exceptionally good health, although several years ago she broke a hip in a fall and had used a cane since then. Her last previous illness was on April 29, 1940, when she suffered an upset stomach in New York City.

Only a week ago she had returned from her summer home at Campobello, New Brunswick. She had not been feeling well and her condition became worse Friday night and critical some 24 hours later. The President arrived from Washington Saturday morning and had a final long visit with his mother.
